

第五話

The Knight, Raven

It came up!

Yaaa-aayy
~!!

The seed that Raven gave me sprouted--!

That's great, Ropely!

It came up! It came up! It came up!

!?

I'm back,
Ropely.

I really should tell him. I wonder if Raven will be happy?

Welcome back, Raven!
Know what?

Ropely, will you stay here with him?

Wait here for a minute. I have to go check on the fields.

That's right. This is a hidden village.

Eh?

Whoa... So there was a village deep in the cemetery woods..?

It's pretty well hidden.

Okay...

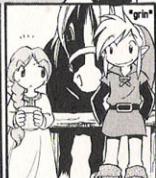

What's WITH this guy? Using my name so casually all of a sudden...! He's too friendly!

Ropely? Raven's not from around here, is he? Who is he?

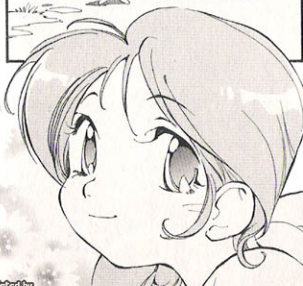

What's this guy's problem? Thanks to him, I missed a chance to talk to Raven!

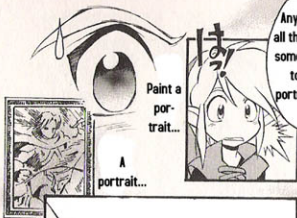

You mean you don't know each other?

HMPH!

He came to Lennu Village three years ago. It seems he had already spent a lot of time travelling and training his sword techniques. He knows a lot of stuff. Like, the medicinal techniques of other countries... and how other villages are doing...

Paint a portrait...

A portrait...

Anyway, with all that he does, someone's sure to paint a portrait of him!

...Ways of growing crops that we didn't know of... He even politely taught a little village girl like me.

It's the first time I've ever met a knight like him.

I REMEMBER!!

What's WITH you all of a sudden?!

Haa.. Haa.. Haa..

sigh

Of course, he's very skilled with the sword, and Queen Anbi depends on his service at the palace...

So, that means... Raven is...

Sorry to keep you waiting.

I remember... That face... it was in the painting in our living room!

I KNEW I'd seen him before!

...my ancestor?!

In accordance with the flow of time, the crops continue to reach for the heavens!

Oh, Raven!

But... why is my ancestor in Laburennu instead of Hyrule?

Elder, here's a souvenir!

Besides that...
What if, when we were fighting, I had gotten the upper hand...

Lesta, grill this right away, would you?

Ooh! My favorite food!

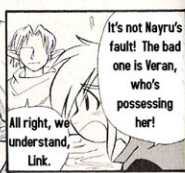

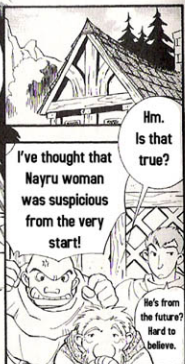

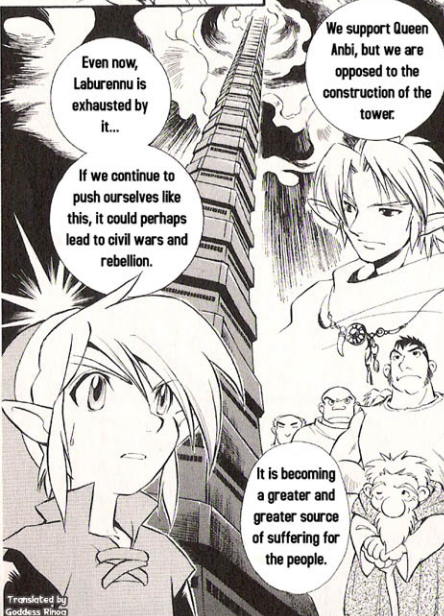

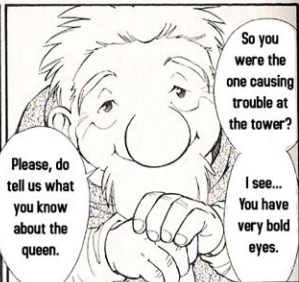

...and killed my own ancestor?

Link.

What's your name, boy?

Yeek...

To change Laburennu's history...

Maybe... that's what Veran's after!

It's a great country! It's peaceful and prosperous, and everyone's happy...

What is the Laburennu of the future like?

...and turn this peaceful country into a chaotic country of darkness?!

Rather than the boring country it is now, my goal is to turn Laburennu into a country where endless fighting does not quell the people's hatred!

Peace? Prosperity? Those things are the height of boredom!

Furthermore, no one knows the true purpose of that tower... Heh heh...

By manipulating that simple queen, I am sowing the seeds of conflict!

Right now, the queen is carrying out Nayru's... I mean, Veran's wishes.

Calm down! If we just run out there, we'll be crushed by the army!

Like we'll let THAT happen!! Let's go tear that tower down right now!

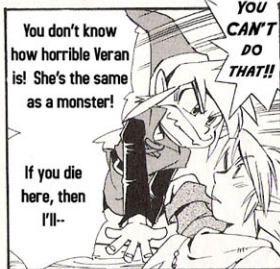

But this is something best left for an outsider to take care of.

Raven?! You can't! If something happens to you, what will happen to this village?!

No, that...

If it comes down to it... I'll take Nayru down.

You don't know how horrible Veran is! She's the same as a monster!

YOU CAN'T DO THAT!!

If you die here, then I'll--

Can you come outside? I have something to show you.

Should I just tell him that I'm his descendant? No... telling him might change things.

But, it's all right. I have faith in my blade.

Thank you for worrying about me, Link.

...I'll be in huge trouble...

They're common in Hyrule, but an unknown crop in this country.

Toto potatoes! How nostalgic!

Wow ...

It took three years.

I carried the seeds with me and cultivated them here, and now they're finally mature.

Do you know what kind of field this is?

This feels great! Reminds me of the country-side.

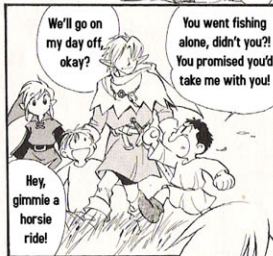

Come back later and have a drink!

Hey!

Good day, Raven!

Raven!

We'll go on my day off, okay?

You went fishing alone, didn't you?! You promised you'd take me with you!

Hey, gimmie a horsie ride!

But because of the tower's construction, we don't have enough hands to cultivate the crops we worked so hard to plant.

Things have finally become abundant...

But for the villagers to love him this much, he must be a good person.

His image seems pretty different from the painting in my house...

I can't talk to him with that guy around!

Ropely -!

Ah! It's the girl from before.

Aah-!

Kyaa-!

??

Don't touch it!! This is your fault!

AH!

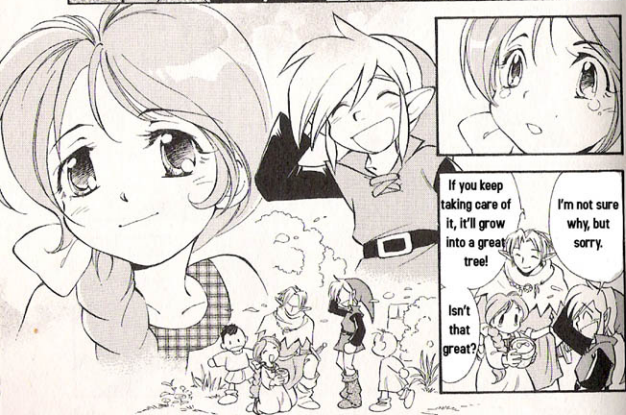

Oh, man, the pot...

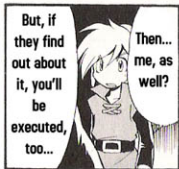

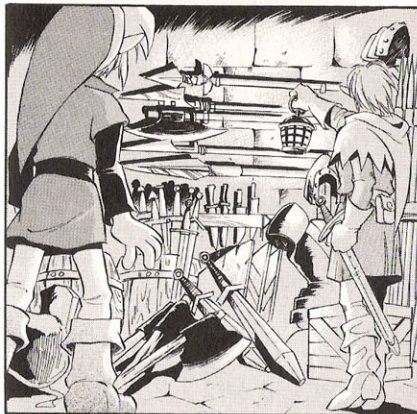

Aaaah-hhhh ~~~!!

...the seed I got from Raven...

It finally sprouted, too...

Are you okay, Ropely?!

But, if they find out about it, you'll be executed, too...

Then... me, as well?

Before they were executed, I saved them and brought them to this village...

By Nayru's words, the queen had them disposed of.

Do you guys really intend to destroy that tower?

Look at all these weapons!

There were plenty of people inside the castle that doubted Nayru.

I will NOT allow Veran's ambitions to ruin it!

The happiness that we've worked so hard to achieve...

Ropely's father went to the construction site and hasn't come home in four months.

Just how many people do you think are suffering because of that tower?

I'll defeat Veran, and return Nayru to normal!

I'm with you on that.

Seems we're at an agreement.

Will you lend us your power, future boy?

Of course!
